

Six of Europe's best young prospects

Evgeny Pomazan - Russia

Factfile:
Position - Goalkeeper
D.O.B - 31/01/1989
Club - Kuban-Krasnodar
Comments:
Pomazan impressed throughout with heroics versus Hungary in his first match and penalty save in the final.

Manuel Fischer - Germany

Factfile:
Position - Striker
D.O.B - 19/09/1989
CLUB - VfB Stuttgart
Comments:
His 13 goals for the U17 season is a new record. Stuttgart will struggle to keep him if he continues his form.

Marko Marin - Germany

Factfile:
Position - Midfielder
D.O.B - 13/03/1989
Club - Bor. Monchengladbach
Comments:
One of the main reasons why Fischer scored so many goal. Bags of ability, with the style of Schweinsteiger.

Aaron Niguez - Spain

Factfile:
Position - Midfield/Striker
D.O.B - 26/04/1989
Club - Valencia CF
Comments:
Niguez was overshadowed by Bojan Krkic but is an exciting prospect, very much in the mould of Tevez.

Tomas Necid - Czech Republic

Factfile:
Position - Striker
D.O.B - 13/08/1989
Club - SK Slavia Prague
Comments:
Necid finished as joint top-scorer in the Championships despite being suspended for the semi-finals.

Krisztian Nemeth - Hungary

Factfile:
Position - Striker
D.O.B - 05/01/1989
Club - MTK
Comments:
Prolific striker who is his country's best prospect. Fantastic skill but needs to curb his diving in the box.
